From Revd Dr James Garnett

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I will be joining you, not just at the start of a new Connexional Year, but in the Season of Creation – running from 1 September to St Francis' Day on 4 October. During this time, as I look around me to discover the beauty and wonder of God's creation in North Wales, I invite you also to observe the place where we live.

Where do we see the God of Compassion at work? In our churches, we hope; but where else? The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it (Psalm 24). So where, by God's prevenient grace, is compassion to be found among the people and institutions who surround us?

Where, too, do we see the need for compassion? Where is there pain, loneliness, poverty, bewilderment or grief that is crying out for the compassion that we name as the love of Christ?

I invite you to share your observations, not just in times of worship and fellowship, but also in a Circuit Bible Study series that will run weekly on Zoom from Monday 2 September to Monday 30 September at 7.30pm. This will be an opportunity to look at God's creation together through the eyes of Elijah. If you would like to take part in this study but are not confident in using Zoom, please ask for help or consider joining someone else on their screen. The Zoom meeting ID is 849 6735 1356, passcode 210095.

Following the Season of Creation, we will enter that time of remembering and thanksgiving which includes Harvest Festivals, All Saints Day, Remembrance Day. This is a season to give thanks to God for the fruits of our labour and for the witness of those who have gone before us; a time to take stock.

The last week in this Plan is the Sunday before Advent – the season for visions as we discern God's call. How will we participate in God's future for our churches? Our circuit? Ourselves?

This process of discernment will follow the liturgical year and continue into 2025 as we support each other in responding to the time of change through which we are living. Together, we will explore how to live as a community of compassion and a community for compassion: a community of Christ.

Yours in Christ,

James
